Hidden under a small suburban town, the Inventory is a collection of the most incredible technology the world has NEVER seen: invisible camouflage, HoverBoots, indestructible metals, and the deadly war robot Iron Fist. Dev's uncle, Charlie Parker, is the Inventory's mild-mannered curator, with security provided by Eema, a beyond-state-of-the-art artificial intelligence system. But security is catastrophically breached when Lot and Mason from school turn up unexpectedly and, hot on their heels, a ruthless gang of thieves working for the Collector and the Shadow Helix organization. If the thieves succeed in their goal to seize the Iron Fist, Dev, his friends, and the world are in a whole heap of trouble.

There are three action packed jungle adventures featuring Tarzan. They really are super cool and very clever, Andy updates him so well.

Ideally you should read them in order, but if you just fancy the look of any, choose that one, you can always read the others later.

Andy Briggs is an Internationally acclaimed author and script writer. He works in Japan and California when he's not writing super cool adventures and enjoying meeting avid readers like you.

If you choose the book you want in advance it guarantees we have enough copies as we are on a 3 day tour and can never tell how popular any one book will be. Someone at school will make a list of names and book titles and send it to Bolton Library so I get to know.

Andy does a fabulous talk you will be thrilled and learn too.

Enjoy his visit and keep reading it's really good for you.
