New Regulations on term-time holidays

The Education (Pupil Registration) (England) Regulations 2006 previously allowed headteachers to grant leave of absence for the purpose of a family holiday during term time in "special circumstances" of up to ten school days leave per year. Headteachers were also able to grant extended leave for more than ten school days in exceptional circumstances.

In September 2018 Bolton Council changed the statutory threshold to five school days. These amendments make clear that headteachers may NOT grant any leave of absence during term time unless there are exceptional circumstances. Headteachers should determine the number of school days a child can be away from school if the leave is granted.
