The Haunting of Aveline Jones - Characters

Everybody, young or old, experiences a coming of age as they develop from child to adult. A common coming of age theme revolves around how a teenager finds their own identity.

The literature we will be studying deals with aspects of coming of age including: characters discovering their purpose in life, learning to accept themselves and others, experiencing life-changing moments, confronting their fears, taking responsibility for their actions, and coming to terms with the unfair nature of the world.

BILDUNGSROMAN - The combination of two German words: Bildung, meaning "education," and Roman, meaning "novel." A bildungsroman is a novel that deals with the formative years of the main character, and in particular, with the character's personal development and moral education.

Aveline Jones	Curious, brave, empathetic and bookish protagonist. Her journey into the supernatural marks a transition from innocence to awareness.
Harold	Mr. Lieberman's nephew who Aveline befriends. His help is vital in unravelling the mystery.
Mr. Lieberman	Kindly and eccentric bookshop owner with a passion for stories who encourages Aveline's interest in spooky tales. Good-natured, knowledgeable and a symbol of wisdom.
Primrose Penberthy	Mysterious girl who vanished. Her presence haunts the town—central to the novel's suspense.
Aunt Lilian	Seemingly cold and distant aunt who Aveline finds intimidating at first. Aunt Lilian and Aveline learn from each other and grow closer as the novel progresses.
Aveline's Mum	Represents safety and the mundane world. Her absence gives Aveline independence.

	Curiosity &amp; Knowledge	Aveline's thirst for truth drives the plot - highlighting the value of knowledge.
	Friendship, Family &amp; Trust	Aveline develops several strong and trusting relationships within the novel. These human connections are vital; her family and friends serve as emotional anchors, giving Aveline the support and strength she needs to face the supernatural.

Narrative Features

Plot	The main events of a novel or play, devised and presented by the writer as an interrelated sequence.
Setting	The location and time frame in which the action of a narrative takes place.
Character	A person, animal, being, or thing in a story. Writers use characters to perform the actions and speak dialogue, moving the story along a plot line.
Narrator/ Narrative Voice	A narrator is the person telling the story, and it determines the point of view that the audience will experience.
Atmosphere	The overall mood of a story or poem, achieved through description.
Themes	The central ideas, topics, or points of a story.
Tension	The sense that something ominous (bad) is right around the corner.
Protagonist	The main character. The story circles around this character's experiences, and the audience is invited to see the world from his or her perspective.
Antagonist	The opposite of the protagonist. Typically, this is a villain of some kind, but not always! It's just the opponent of the main character, or someone who gets in their way.
Confidant	A secondary character in the story, often a friend or authority figure, whose role is to listen to the protagonist and advise them on their actions.

Key Techniques:

Imagery	When the writer creates a vivid picture in the reader's mind through their description. E.g. "Glittering white, the blanket of snow covered everything"
Personification	Giving human features to non-human things. E.g. "The moon watched over us"
Foreshadowing	When the writer hints at events that could happen later in the text.
Symbolism	When objects or characters are used to represent bigger ideas.
Simile	Comparing two things using 'like' or 'as'. E.g. "The snake moved like a ripple on a pond"
Metaphor	Describes something by saying it is something else. It's not literal, but it helps create a vivid image or understanding. DOES NOT use "like" or "as". E.g. "The world is a stage"
Zoomorphism	Giving animalistic features to non-animal things. E.g. "The wind howled"
Pathetic fallacy	Using the weather to set the tone and mood of the text.
Onomatopoeia	Words that are also sounds. E.g. bang, drip, crash.
